SILENT ASSAULT

I. Introduction

A sinister alien power has taken control of the Earth's military forces. Chosen by fate, you are the only person that the interstellar demon creatures cannot possess. Engage enemy infantry as you gather additional armament. Infiltrate a besieged city to secure the heavily guarded munitions factory and nuclear reactor. Engage bizarre creatures from the scorching desert to the dark and forbidding forest. It's a race against time, and your time is almost up.

II. GAME CONTROL

Left and Right Arrows: Move the Commando in the indicated directions.

Down Arrow: Moves the Commando into a combat crawl position to duck bullets and at the same time allows the Commando to fire weapons from a lower level.

Up Arrow: Holding down the Up Arrow and pushing Button B will cause the Commando to fire upwards.

Button A: Causes the Commando to jump.

Button B: Fires the current weapon on hand.

Select Button: Tosses a grenade to kill all enemies on the screen.

Start Button: Starts the game. Also freezes the game.

III. GAME MECHANICS

You start each new game with 3 Commandos. Each possess 3 shields shown on the upper left hand corner of the screen. Every time the Commando comes into contact with enemies or bullets he loses half a shield. When your shield is fully depleted you lose a Commando. You can replenish shield power by picking up hearts which occasionally appear when you gun down an enemy. Flying objects often carry additional weapons. Shoot them and jump to retrieve a variety of powerful guns before they vanish. Possession of the Metal of Bravery keeps you indestructible for the few seconds when the Commando is flashing.

There are a total of 8 worlds filled with explosive action and challenging terrain. Survive any way you can. . . just thank God that you are alive and in one piece.
